The meeting was called to order at 10:08 am in attendance were Wally Sayko, Chairman; Barbara Lassiter, Asst. Chairwoman; David Clary, Registrar, Cyliene Montgomery, Chairwoman of the Brunswick County Democratic Committee and Gilbert Benjamin, Secretary.

Agenda was approved.

Old Business:

Wally Sayko reiterated a need to raise election pay $20.00 for Officers of Election for November 3, 2020 election, as compensation for working during the Covid-19 pandemic. The need for election officers training was discussed but no timetable was set.

New Business:

David Clary stated that approximately 750 applications have been processed, ballots must be sent out by Sept. 19th and Kanye West was taken off the ballot. David gave sample ballots to the board and stated that we are not using drop boxes.

The Board discussed Cyliene Montgomery request for list of the early voting officers, a list of the officers of election and the need to walk thru all the precincts to check for compliance and the board agreed.

Wally explained to Cyliene early voting procedures and that the early voting was staffed with 9 days of all democrats and 24 days mixed.

Wally confirmed that the Fire Dept. would be sanitized before and after election and that Mr. Woodward would do the sanitation. South Brunswick will accept $200 to do their own sanitation. Danielstown needs to be contacted, Barbara agreed to contact them.

Benjamin has 3 bills that need to be payed, he also needs to call Henrietta Graves and Susan Starke. The Warfield's need a date change to complete the early voting calendar.

Next meeting is on September 22, 2020.
